

CACHE CREEK CASINO RESORT

For Immediate Release
February 17, 2010

Male review will leave Cache Creek ‘thunderstruck’

BROOKS, Calif. – Australia’s Thunder From Down Under, the internationally acclaimed male revue, has become one of the hottest tickets in Las Vegas. Now Northern Californians can experience the excitement of this Vegas show at Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 stage on Friday, April 9 at 9 p.m. and Saturday, April 10 at 8 p.m.

AOL’s City Guide named Thunder the “Best Adult Attraction,” and the Las Vegas Review-Journal newspaper named Thunder “Best Male Revue.” The popular act has been a permanent fixture at the Excalibur Hotel and Casino since 2001. So just what is the appeal? The show’s format is simple. Sexy Australians show off their buffed bodies to adoring fans in a high energy performance, interacting with the ladies in attendance who scream with anticipation from the moment the show begins.

The latest production features charismatic characters including pirate “Jack Sparrow” from “Pirates of the Caribbean,” to a desperado from the Wild West. And of course, there’ll be a few firemen thrown into the show just for good measure. Amidst state-of-the-art lighting and sound, audiences have the chance to see their fantasy men come to life on stage with a sensational cowboy finale said to be “as scorching as the Las Vegas desert.”

This traveling troupe has been to more than 15 countries including Russia, England, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, Taiwan and Ireland, performing for more than four million women. They’ve appeared numerous times at Cache Creek, always to sell out crowds.

Tickets are available now through Tickets.com on the web: www.Tickets.com or by phone: (800) 225-2277 or at: www.CacheCreek.com or Cache Creek Casino Resort guest services for $45, $35, and $25.

Press contact: Cean Burgeson, Communications Manager: (530) 796-5333;
cburgeson@cachecreek.com