

CACHE CREEK

CASINO RESORT

For Immediate Release
Friday, January 21, 2011

Night Ranger can still 'Rock in America'

BROOKS, Calif. – It all started when five hard-rockin' kids from the San Francisco Bay Area joined forces in the early 80s to form the group Night Ranger. Early on, their sing-along rock songs and good looks packed clubs and theaters, drawing the attention of legendary promoter Bill Graham -- and soon Night Ranger were appearing in concerts with major artists.

It wasn't long before they were headlining their own arena shows. Night Ranger's debut album "Dawn Patrol" hit the charts hard, going instantly Top 40 with the now anthemic single, "Don't Tell Me You Love Me." In the years that followed, like no other 80s rock band, Night Ranger both epitomized and transcended the sound and style of that decade, leaving an indelible mark with a string of best-selling albums that sold more than 16 million copies worldwide.

The band's popularity was fueled by an impressive string of instantly recognizable hit singles and signature album tracks including "Sister Christian," "Rock In America," "When You Close Your Eyes," "Sentimental Street," "Goodbye" and "Don't Tell Me You Love Me." Reuniting in 1996 for a tour of Japan and a summer US tour, the group discovered that its fan base was still solid. Since that reunion, Night Ranger has toured across the country, sharing stages with such acts as REO Speedwagon, Styx, Journey, Bad Company, Pat Benatar, Loverboy, Poison, Cinderella, Boston, Heart, Sammy Hagar, Cheap Trick, and Kansas.

In subsequent years, the group released the album "The Best of Night Ranger" and "The Best of Night Ranger/The DVD Collection," featuring five of the band's best-known videos. Other album releases followed in Europe, Japan and the U.S., proving that the band was still a force in the music industry.

The bright lights and rock 'n' roll nights have never ended for Night Ranger. Fans of the group can "Rock in America" on Saturday, April 2 at 8 p.m. at Cache Creek Casino Resort's Club 88. Tickets are available for $45 and $29 through Tickets.com on the web: www.Tickets.com, by phone: (800) 225-2277 or at: www.CacheCreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort guest services.

###

Press contact: Cean Burgeson, Communications Manager: (530) 796-5333;
cburgeson@cachecreek.com