Grammy winner Michael Bolton set for Cache Creek's Club 88

BROOKS, Calif. – Multiple Grammy Award-winning singer and songwriter Michael Bolton has sold more than 53 million albums and singles worldwide, and is known for his timeless love songs and feel good hits. A staple on every adult contemporary station on the radio dial nationwide, he is currently on a 115 city world tour spanning several continents, including a show at Cache Creek Casino Resort's Club 88 on April 30 at 8 p.m.

Bolton has always balanced a love for writing new songs with a passion for covering the classics. On his breakthrough album "The Hunger," Bolton authored the #1 single "That's What Love is All About" and sang his chart topping version of Otis Redding's "(Sittin' On) the Dock of the Bay", which was a hit on four radio formats. That album was certified double platinum and shipped four million copies worldwide. To date, he has seen eight studio albums rank in the Top Ten, with nine #1 singles. Bolton's true signature success was seized with the six-time platinum album "Soul Provider," selling more than 12 million copies worldwide, and showcasing chart-toppers such as the #1 hit single "How Am I Supposed to Live Without You," which earned Michael his first Grammy. This pivotal album also includes the hit singles "When I'm Back on My Feet" Again," "How Can We Be Lovers," and "Soul Provider."

Soon after, Bolton released the #1 album "Time, Love & Tenderness", which has sold over 16 million copies world-wide, and features his Grammy Award-winning vocal performance of the #1 blockbuster hit "When A Man Loves a Woman." This album also produced the hit singles: "Love Is a Wonderful Thing," "Time, Love and Tenderness" and "Missing You Now," as well as "Steel Bars."

Bolton followed this up with a collection of soulful classics on "Timeless," delivering the hit singles "To Love Some Somebody" and "Reach Out I'll Be There." "Timeless" sold over seven million copies worldwide. From his next album "The One Thing" came Michael's massive single "Said I Loved You...But I Lied," which spent 12 weeks at #1 on the AC charts and earned him another Grammy-nomination. Michael has always been attracted to a wide array of musical categories, from Sinatra favorites ("Bolton Swings Sinatra"), to classical arias ("My Secret Passion"), which achieved #1 on the classical charts for a record breaking six weeks. There will be something for every fan to enjoy during his performance at Cache Creek.
