

“Best Mariachi’s in the World” Return to Cache Creek’s Club 88 Showroom on April 15

BROOKS, Calif. - Mariachi Vargas De Tecalitlán - which has been credited with revolutionizing their style of music - has literally been in existence for over 100 years. Often called, “the best mariachi’s in the world,” local audiences will have a chance to experience the music of this enduring band when they return to Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Friday, April 15 at 9 p.m.

Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán was founded in Tecalitlán, Jalisco, Mexico by Gaspar Vargas in 1897. In 1928, his son, Silvestre Vargas, assumed control of the group. Over time the members have changed, they’ve recorded albums, starred in over 200 movies, and performed all over the world; all the while cementing their status as a premier mariachi group in existence.

To this day, like most Mariachi groups, the band members dress in the traditional charro suits customary in the nineteenth century, and sometimes perform dances accompanied by ballet folklórico performers. This particular performance at Cache Creek will be a unique opportunity for Northern California audiences to see this historic Mexican group, which has managed to thrive for over 100 years and has seen five generations of musicians.

Led by Jose “Pepe” Martinez, the current band boasts 12-members playing violin, trumpet, vihuela, guitarron, harp and guitar, and is sure to entertain audiences of all backgrounds and musical tastes.

Mariachi Vargas De Tecalitlán plays Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Friday, April 15 at 9 p.m. Tickets are $85/$75/$65 and are available through Tickets.com on the web: www.tickets.com, phone: (800) 225-2277 or at www.cachecreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort guest services.
