Saddle-Up for Country Star Trace Adkins' Visit to Cache Creek's Outdoor Amphitheater on August 13

Brooks, Calif. – Trace Adkins has long been one of country music's alpha males, a man whose commanding presence and matchless baritone have made him a pillar of the contemporary Nashville sound. See Adkins in the outdoor Summer Stage Concert Series at Cache Creek Casino Resort on Saturday, August 13.

Adkins is a man of many hats, both literally and figuratively. He achieved reality TV stardom on Donald Trump's "Celebrity Apprentice," he's dabbled in acting, and he laid out his conservative political views in the book, "A Personal Stand: Observations and Opinions from a Freethinking Roughneck." Adkins has also ventured into the comic book world with the launch of "Luke McBain," a four-part comic book series whose lead character was based on the country giant's likeness and persona.

But at the end of the day, he's a country singer - pure and simple.

Adkins made his debut in the country music world almost 15 years ago with a platinum-selling album and has since become an undeniable musical force, earning his place among the most identifiable artists of his generation. A Grand Ole Opry member since 2003, Adkins has built a strong legion of fans by recording songs that possess insightful lyrics and cover a wide range of interests - many from his own life experiences. With one of the most identifiable voices in country music, the Grammy-nominated artist has had 28 singles land on Billboard's country chart, with 14 breaking into the Top 10. His albums have achieved from gold to multi-platinum status and have made chart-topping debuts.

Trace Adkins plays Cache Creek Casino Resort's outdoor "Summer Stage" on Saturday, August 13 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $75/$49/$39 and are available online at tickets.com or by phone (800) 225-2277; or at cachecreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort's guest services desk.
