New Table Games! Blackjack Switch and Dealer Bluff Now Offered at Cache Creek Casino Resort

Brooks, Calif. – Two new exciting table games have been added at Cache Creek Casino Resort: Blackjack Switch and Dealer Bluff.

In Blackjack Switch, each player plays two hands of blackjack. The player can choose to switch the second card of each hand. The player can also make the optional Super Match bet which is based on the first four cards. To start, players make equal bets on both betting spots and the optional Super Match wager. The dealer then deals out two hands of blackjack to every player and one to the dealer. The dealer resolves all Super Match wagers:

Four of a Kind pays 40 to 1
Two Pair pays 8 to 1
Three of a Kind pays 5 to 1
Pair pays 1 to 1

After seeing their first two Blackjack starting hands, players have a choice: to switch the second card of each hand or play the hands as they are. Then each hand is played according to the normal house rules of Blackjack with these two exceptions: Blackjacks pay even money and a dealer total of 22 will push all non-bust hands.

In Dealer Bluff, the player plays head-to-head against the dealer with an optional side bet. Players and the dealer each receive six cards to make a five-card hand. It incorporates the "Dealer Bluff" feature when the dealer bets first and the players have the choice to fold, call or re-raise. To start, the player bets equal amounts on the ante and blind. The player and the dealer receive six cards to make your best five-card poker hand. The dealer will bet 1X, 2X or 3X the amount of the ante. The player's decisions are:

- a. Fold and lose the Ante and Blind
- b. Call the dealer's bet of 1X, 2X or 3X the Ante
- c. Raise by betting 2X the amount of the dealer's bet
