Soul Diva Patti LaBelle Hits the Stage at Cache Creek's Outdoor Amphitheater on August 20

Brooks, Calif. – Well known for her powerful voice and signature high-octave vocal belting, Patti LaBelle has enjoyed one of the longest-lived careers in contemporary music. See LaBelle in the outdoor Summer Stage Concert Series at Cache Creek Casino Resort on Saturday, August 20.

Notching hits in a variety of sounds ranging from girl group pop to space-age funk to lush ballads, LaBelle spent sixteen years as lead singer of Patti LaBelle and the Bluebelles, who changed their name to Labelle in the early 1970s and released the disco song, "Lady Marmalade". She started her solo career in 1977 and crossed over to pop music. Among the highlights on a long list of successes, she scored a number one R&B hit with "If You Only Knew," from 1983's I'm in Love Again. Two years later, she reached the pop Top 20 with her Beverly Hills Cop soundtrack contribution "New Attitude." Her subsequent MCA debut, 1986's The Winner in You, went platinum on the strength of the Burt Bacharach-penned "On My Own," a duet with Michael McDonald, while the follow-up, 1989's Be Yourself, featured a pair of cuts written by Prince. Released in 1991, Burnin' earned a Grammy for Best Female R&B Performance.
