Brooks, Calif. – Their distinctive voices have been a soundtrack to a generation. See Michael McDonald and Boz Scaggs in the outdoor Summer Stage Concert Series at Cache Creek Casino Resort on Friday, September 23.

Michael McDonald has enjoyed an immensely successful career, most notably as a member of the Doobie Brothers and as a solo artist. A five-time Grammy Award winning singer and songwriter, McDonald is known for a soulful style and a multi-octave range. As a member of the Doobie Brothers, he recorded some of his most well-known songs such as "Real Love," "Takin' It to the Streets," "Little Darling," "It Keeps You Runnin'," "Minute by Minute" and "What a Fool Believes." His memorable solo work includes, among many, "Ya Mo B There" (with James Ingram), "Sweet Freedom" and "I Keep Forgettin' (Every Time You're Near)."

Boz Scaggs was a critics' darling in the late 1960s and into the 1970s with "My Time" and "Slow Dancer," but he did not achieve a commercial breakthrough until 1976's "Silk Degrees," which reached number two on the album charts while spawning the hit singles "Lowdown" and "Lido Shuffle." In 1977 "Down Two Then Left" was also a success, and 1980's album "Middle Man" reached the top ten with the singles "Breakdown Dead Ahead" and "Jo Jo." An enduring star in the world of contemporary music, this Grammy winner remains a versatile performer who has sold millions of records to legions of fans.

McDonald and Scaggs play Cache Creek Casino Resort's outdoor "Summer Stage" on Friday, September 23 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $75/$59/$49 and are available online at tickets.com or by phone (800) 225-2277; or at cachecreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort's guest services desk.
