Laos ‘Princess of Pop’ Alexandra Bounxouei Performs Free ‘Cache Club’ Show on November 6

Brooks, Calif. – Having traveled the world performing, Alexandra Bounxouei can sing, dance and play guitar, piano, and violin. It’s no wonder she’s hailed as the “Princess of Pop” in her home country of Laos. See Bounxouei in a free “Cache Club” show in Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Sunday, November 6 at 6 p.m.

The website laopress.com said, "The most well-known, young, beautiful, poignant, articulated and talented diplomat of Laos is Alexandra Bounxouei. She has toured across continents - Europe, America, and Asia – Laos, Thailand, Korea, Japan and China representing her country as well as herself performing her music. Thus she puts her country on the world map (and) people are noticing."

Alexandra Bounxouei plays Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Sunday, November 6 at 6 p.m. Tickets are free with a Cache Club card or just $20 at the door. Cache Club membership is free; simply visit the Cache Club booth located on the main casino floor. For additional information, visit cachecreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort’s guest services desk.
