Tex-Mex Favorites Little Joe Y La Familia Play Cache Creek on November 25

Brooks, Calif. – Little Joe, often described as the “King of the Brown Sound,” has been entertaining for more than 50 years. See him with his band, La Familia, in Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Friday, November 25 at 9 p.m.

Little Joe Y La Familia is one of the most popular Tejano bands in music. With multiple Grammy nominations, the group helped pioneer “Tex-Mex,” a mix of traditional “norteno” music with country, blues and rock stylings. Little Joe has released more than 50 albums, among them the popular and enduring Timeless, which spent more than 52 weeks on the charts. The group dubbed its music La Onda Chicana, which translates as the Chicano Wave. The lyrics provide a glimpse of Hispanic life, while the music mixes ballads, western swing, country and western, blues and rock & roll.
