“Mr. Las Vegas” Wayne Newton Plays One Special Night at Cache Creek Casino Resort

Brooks, Calif. – Few performers truly achieve world-wide fame. And within that elite group, even fewer reach legendary status. Wayne Newton, known and acknowledged for decades as “Mr. Las Vegas,” is among the latter. Experience a truly special night when Newton plays the Club 88 showroom on Saturday, February 4 at Cache Creek Casino Resort.

A lot has come and gone since Newton first set the entertainment world on fire as a precocious, big-voiced six-year-old. When Elvis Presley was still driving a truck, Newton, almost ten years his junior, had already sung before a president, toured with a Grand Ole Opry road show and released his first record. While the Beatles were still scrambling for their early Liverpool gigs, Newton, who was two years younger than John Lennon, was playing Las Vegas and appearing on the Jackie Gleason and Lucille Ball television shows.

In a business that is volatile at best, with success sometimes short-lived, Newton has performed live to more than 40 million people – and on television and recordings to many times that number. He has epitomized the talent, glamour and energy that is Las Vegas – “the entertainment capital of the world” – for so long that he is called “Mr. Las Vegas.”

Newton has recorded and released 165 albums to date. The people of Las Vegas and Nevada, whom he so dearly loves, have given him their highest honors as well. He is one of only two people in Las Vegas history to receive the city’s Medal of Honor, he has been named Ambassador of Goodwill for the state and he has seen Las Vegas’ McCarran International Airport’s main thoroughfare renamed “Wayne Newton Boulevard.” Wayne was also named one of the “top 3 entertainers of the century in Nevada and around the world” (along with Frank Sinatra and Elvis). There is a Wayne Newton star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and he was bestowed the first star on the Las Vegas Walk of Fame. The legend himself Merv Griffin may have summed it up best when he said, “Las Vegas without Wayne Newton is like Disneyland without Mickey Mouse.”

Wayne Newton plays Cache Creek Casino Resort’s Club 88 on Saturday, February 4 at 8 p.m. Tickets are just $75/$59/$49 and are available through Tickets.com online at tickets.com or by phone (800) 225-2277; or at cachecreek.com and Cache Creek Casino Resort’s guest services desk.
