

blackjack

Blackjack is played with a six-deck shoe, double-deck or single-deck. Rules are dependent on game type, and limits may vary from table to table.

The objective of Blackjack is for the Player to have the total of his/her cards as close to 21, without exceeding 21, while also beating the Dealer's hand.

CARD VALUES

- 2 through 10: face value
 - All Face Cards: 10
 - Aces: 1 or 11
(count Aces as 11, unless it makes a bust)

 - Players receive 3 to 2 odds when dealt a Blackjack, (any Ace and a 10 value card) unless the Dealer is also dealt Blackjack - which is a "push."
 - When the Dealer shows an Ace, players can buy "insurance" for up to 1/2 of their bet, paying 2-to-1 odds if the Dealer has Blackjack.
 - Dealer stands on all 17s.
 - A tie (no win or loss) is called a "push."
 - Players can "double down" after receiving their first two cards by doubling their bet and will receive a single card.
 - Players dealt pairs can split them up to four times, including Aces. A separate matching bet is required for each hand. In single-deck and double-deck, Players can split one time.

lucky lucky blackjack

- A Player must place a Blackjack bet in order to play the Lucky Lucky bet.
- If the Player chooses to participate, an additional bet may be placed in the designated area on the layout.
- Only the seated Player may participate in this option.
- All bets are placed prior to the Dealer dealing any cards.
- Once all cards are dealt, and prior to any draws being made, the Dealer will check to see if any Players have received a Lucky Lucky win. The Lucky Lucky bet is based on the Player's first 2 cards and the Dealer's up card.
 - a. Players who did place a Lucky Lucky bet and win will be paid.
Player is only entitled to one payout per round (the highest win) from the Lucky Lucky pay table.
 - b. Players who did not receive a Lucky Lucky win in their first 2 cards dealt and the Dealer's up card will lose their Lucky Lucky bet.

*Payout odds may vary based on game type.
See table for the Lucky Lucky Pay Table.*

blackjack switch

Blackjack Switch is an exciting new way to play blackjack that allows you to “switch” the order of your cards to make your best possible blackjack hand.

HOW TO PLAY

To begin, you must place equal bets on both betting positions. The dealer will deal you two separate blackjack hands. Once you review both hands, you have the choice of keeping the hands as they were dealt or “switching” the second card from each hand. Switching may only take place after the dealer has checked for a natural blackjack. The dealer will then proceed following house rules for blackjack.

Note: Doubling and splitting are allowed, even after “switching.” Blackjack pays even money. If the dealer makes a hard total of 22, all remaining bets push.

SUPER MATCH

The Super Match bonus bet is an exciting addition to Blackjack Switch that features multiple payouts. If you place a Super Match bonus wager and receive a pair or better from any of your initial four cards, you win according to the posted payable.

blazing 777

HOW TO PLAY

Blazing 777 is an exciting new optional blackjack progressive bet that wins based on how many 7's the player receives in their hand. The more 7's in your hand, the more you win!

GETTING STARTED

To begin each round, make a standard blackjack bet and the Blazing 7's progressive bet. The dealer then follows the house procedures for blackjack.

HOW TO WIN

You win if at least one of your first two cards are a 7. You win more if both your first two cards are 7's. The payouts increase further if the dealer's up card is also a 7. See payable for odds.

Note: The progressive is based on the player's first two cards and the dealer's up card.

- Player is only entitled to one payout per round (the highest win) from the Blazing 777 payable.
- The suited 777 pays 100% of the progressive jackpot. In the event that more than one progressive prize hits paying the same jackpot amount during the same round, the progressive prize will be equally divided between the winners. In the case of multiple linked tables, winners are paid in the order in which a supervisor authorizes the wins.

cache creek craps

Craps themed card game

Instead of traditional dice, the game utilizes two white, six-sided cubes. Each cube is machine calibrated and gravity centered with a different concentric circle colored dot on each side: yellow, blue, green, red, black, and orange.

The layout incorporates six colored boxes: yellow, blue, green, red, black, and orange. The boxes are located directly in front of the Stick Person position in the center of the table.

The game uses six playing cards, ace through six. The cards are mixed (shuffled) face down on the layout by the dealer and one card is randomly placed in each of the six colored boxes.

PLAYING THE GAME

As the wagers are being placed, the Stick Person "washes" (shuffles) the six playing cards (Ace through six) face down on the layout. The cards are placed face down in each of the six colored boxes on the layout. Prior to the "come out roll," each card is turned faced up in the box. The cubes are delivered to the "shooter" who tosses them. The face up colors on the cubes identifies the playing cards in the two corresponding colored boxes which then determine the "roll." If the same color is face-up on both cubes then the roll is considered a "hardway." For example, if two yellows are rolled, and the card number in the yellow box is Two, the roll is a hard four (2-twos).

The cubes are retrieved by the Stick Person. Once the "roll" is completed, the wagers are settled and additional bets are made. The game continues with the Stick Person sending out the cubes for another "roll". The cards are not "washed" face down on the layout until a "seven out" is rolled and the hand is completed. In all other aspects, the game is played exactly like traditional Craps—same wagering opportunities and payoffs.

face up pai gow poker

Face Up Pai Gow Poker™ features head-to-head play against the dealer and offers the optional Fortune BonusSM, Ace-High and progressive wagers. As in standard Pai Gow, each player and dealer receive seven-cards, but in Face Up Pai Gow Poker™ the dealer's cards are dealt face-up.

Face Up Pai Gow Poker™ is a commission-free game. You do not pay a 5% commission when you beat the dealer; however, when the dealer plays Ace-High, you automatically push.

If different progressive amounts are hit during the same round, the lesser progressive prize will be paid first and then the larger prize is paid less the first payout. free bet blackjack

Free Bet Blackjack is a variation of the standard Blackjack game. Players are allowed "Free" bets on Double-Downs, Splits (except all ten value cards) and/or "Free" Splits allowed up to four hands (except Aces which can be split once for two hands). The "Free" bets are allowed because all dealer 22s (busts) result in a push instead of a "house" loss, and splits are allowed on all pairs except ten-valued cards. Free Bet Blackjack also features a Push 22 side bet which is described below. The game utilizes "Free Bet" lammer that indicate when a player has opted to take a "Free Double" or a "Free Split." Bets are paid to the amount of the original Blackjack wager and the lammer is removed to the table tray.

FREE BET BLACKJACK RULES

Free Bet Blackjack follows the basic rules of standard Blackjack ("21"), with the following features:

- "Free" double-down on first two-card hand total of 9, 10, or 11 (without an Ace)
- "Free" splits on all pairs except 10 value cards
- "Free" re-splits allowed up to four hands (Excluding Aces which can be split once for 2 hands)
- All normal splits allowed
- Regular doubles allowed on two-card hands
- Dealer pushes on 22
- Dealer stands on all 17s
- Blackjack pays 3-to-2
- 6 deck shoe

PUSH 22

If the dealer busts with a point total of 22, all player Blackjack bets in action are pushes. The Push 22 side bet wins if the dealer busts with a total of 22.

multi-link progressive

We have connected all of our Three Card Poker Tables, Four Card Poker Tables, Flushes Gone Wild, Ultimate Texas Hold'em and Mississippi Stud Tables to a Progressive Jackpot and Bonus System. Players will continue to play the underlying games but now have the opportunity to place a side wager on the system for a chance to win some very attractive progressive jackpots. Players must play the underlying game to be allowed to play the progressive side bet. The Progressive Jackpot and Bonus System use a "5 Card Hand Bonus." It works as shown here:

3 Card Poker, the Player's five card hand consists of the three cards in their hand and two community cards that the dealer will turn once the primary game is resolved.

Four Card Poker, the Player's five card hand is based on the poker value of their respective five cards.

Ultimate Texas Hold'em, the Player's five card hand consists of their two hole cards and the first three community cards.

multi-link progressive

A single bonus side bet pay table called 5 Card Hand Bonus is used to link all these poker derivative games to a single Progressive Jackpot and Bonus System. The pay table is defined as:

5-CARD HAND BONUS PAY TABLE

HAND	TYPE	PAY TABLE
Royal Flush	Progressive	100% of jackpot
Straight Flush	Progressive	10% of jackpot
4 of a Kind	Fixed	300 for 1
Full House	Fixed	50 for 1
Flush	Fixed	40 for 1
Straight	Fixed	30 for 1
3 of a Kind	Fixed	9 for 1

All Progressive Jackpot prizes are paid according to a $2 side wager equivalent. The Royal Flush pays 100% of the progressive jackpot and a Straight Flush pays 10% of the progressive amount. In the event that more than one progressive prize hits paying the same jackpot amount during the same round, the progressive prize will be equally divided between the winners. If different progressive amounts are hit during the same round, the lesser progressive prize will be paid first and then the larger prize is paid less the first payout. pai gow tiles Pai Gow is an ancient game played with 32 Chinese dominoes, also known as tiles, which the dealer stacks into eight groups of four. The four tiles are set into two pairs for the best ranking combinations. The objective of the game is to beat the Banker's hand. If the player's two ranking hands are higher than the banker's hands, the player wins. If they are lower, the banker wins. When the banker and player have the same ranking combinations, the banker is the winner. If the player's high hand is higher than the banker's high hand but the low hand is lower than the bank's, or vice versa, it is a push. The Banker can be any player or the casino. A player who banks the game must have the necessary funds to pay off all wagers and must also have wagered in the previous round when the casino acted as Banker. The banking option is offered to each player in turn, rotating in a counterclockwise direction. Players are not obligated to bank, and if the player declines (as often happens), the casino banks the game. When the casino banks the game, its hands are always set according to a house formula for making hands. Players do not have to use that formula when they bank, and are free to arrange their hands any way they choose.

Play begins when the house dealer mixes the tiles and then creates eight stacks of four dominoes. After the players place their bets in the betting circles in front of them, the dealer activates the random number generator which determines which player receives the first stack of tiles. To decide which player gets the first stack, the dealer counts counterclockwise from the Banker around the seven places at the table (so the Banker would get the first stack if the dice totaled 1, 8 or 15). After determining where to start, the house dealer then gives out four tiles to each player, and the players arrange a high and a low hand.

Scoring

The value of a hand is based on both the numeric value and symbolic ranking of the tiles. To find the numeric value of a tile, count the right-hand digit if the total is higher than 9 (so a 12-spot tile has a value of 2). Also, as in baccarat, 9 is the magic number. You want to make your high hand and your low hand each as close to 9 as you can get them.

To form a hand, add the total number of spots contained on the two tiles, again discarding the left-hand digit of any two-digit total (If your tiles total 17, you have a 7.) When two hands have the same numeric value, the symbolic ranking of the tiles determines the winner. To find which hand is higher, take the highest ranked tile in each hand and compare them.

To understand symbolic value, think of it this way: if blackjacks had symbolic value, it would mean that a black-jack composed of an Ace of spades and any picture card or 10 of spades would beat a blackjack composed of an Ace of diamonds and any picture card or 10 of diamonds. The numerical value is the same for both blackjacks (21) but the symbolic value is different, since spades outrank diamonds. Of course, blackjack doesn't have that kind of ranking of suits (except during some promotions and tournaments), but Pai Gow does.

When two hands have the same numeric value and identical high tiles, it is called a "copy" hand. The Bank wins all copy hands. When two hands have a numeric value of 0, regardless of the high tile, the Bank also wins.

Arranging Your Tiles

Once the deal is complete and their high hands and low hands are set, players have to win both hands to win, or lose both hands to lose. Winning one, and losing the other is considered a push, so strategically you don't want to have an extremely strong big hand and a very weak little hand, as this will usually result in a tie. You want to have hands that are relatively strong on the big and little ends. The top five hand rankings are Supreme Pair, Matched Pairs, Unmatched Mixed Pairs, Wongs, and Gongs (see Hand Rankings for a complete explanation).

When you receive your tiles, there are four easy steps to follow that will help you correctly set approximately 90 percent of your hands.

1. Look for pairs. Matching pairs are easy to recognize because the tiles are identical. Unmatched pairs like 5-2 and 3-4 are often overlooked, so if you're not sure what you have, ask the dealer.
2. When you don't have a pair, look for the 12 (Teen) or 2 (Dey) tile and combine it with a 7 to make High 9, or an 8 to make a Gong or a 9 to make a Wong.
3. Look for two small tiles that total 9 or less and play them together.
4. Put the largest tile with the smallest tile.

Ranking

How the hands are ranked is complicated and there is no easy way to memorize the order. The highest hands are the matched pairs as follows. The highest pair, known as the supreme pair consists of the two wild dominos. Each of these wild dominos, known as "gee" may count as either 3 or 6 points if used individually.

Following in rank are certain non-matching pairs.

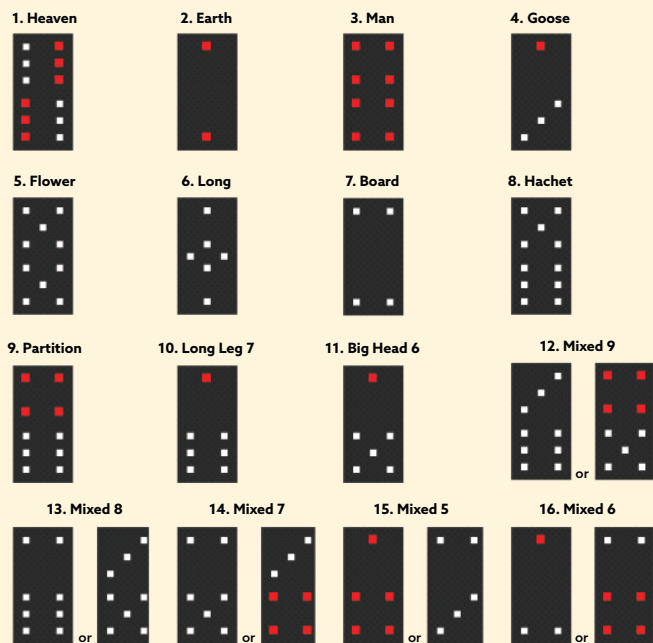

Next in rank are special combinations known as Wongs. These combinations include either the 2 or 12 point domino and any 9 point domino.

Following the Wongs are other special combinations known as Gongs. These combinations include either the 2 or 12 point domino and any 8 point domino.

Finally, if a pair, Wong, or Gong cannot be formed then the hand is ranked according to the total pip value of dots on the dominos. For example a hand consisting of a 12 and 7 dominos would have a total of 19 spots for the highest possible value of 9. The highest among these hands are the 6+6 and 1+1 dominos combined with a 7, known as a "high nine" because of their composition with one of the two highest individual dominos. In the event the player and banker have the same point total then the highest ranking domino in each will be used to break the tie, the high domino wins. In the event that the high dominos are equal then the tie shall go to the banker. Note that the second highest dominos are not used to break the tie. There is an exception, in the event of a 0-0 copy then the tie will go to the banker. The following list shows every domino in order of their rank.

ultimate texas hold'em

Ultimate Texas Hold 'em is a Community Card poker game played with one standard 52-card deck. The object of the game, for Players and Dealer alike, is to make the best five-card hand using any combination of their two-card hand (Hole Cards) along with three, four or five of the Community Cards (called Board Cards). The standard ranking of five-card poker hands apply. The best five-card hand wins. Each Player is competing against the Dealer.

Each Player must make equal wagers on the Ante and blind to receive two cards. Players also have the option to place a Trips Bet Bonus wager. A two-card hand is dealt to each Player and the Dealer. Players now have a choice, Check (do nothing) or Make a Play wager of 3x or 4x their Ante wager. The three Community Cards (Flop) are placed face up on the table. Players that have not yet made a Play wager have a choice to Check or Make a Play wager of 2x their Ante. The Dealer then places the final two Community Cards (Turn and River) face up on the layout. The Players that have not yet made a Play wager have a choice to Fold or Make a Play wager of 1x their Ante.
